

Due to ongoing technical difficulties with our Digistar II projection system, all planetarium programming is temporarily suspended.

We are working with the vendor to isolate and address the system issues so that we can have our star projector back up and running in a stable and reliable fashion.

We hope to resume operations as soon as we can.

Thank you for your interest.