

Our public planetarium show schedule will resume in early 2018.

The planetarium is used as a classroom in support of Navarro College courses throughout the week.

The planetarium is currently available for school field trips.